Miss Helen Crane
60 North Avenue
Elizabeth, N.J.

My dear Miss Crane:

There was held this morning a meeting of the incorporators of the newly organized Woman's Board of Home Missions for the purpose of deciding on the size of the incorporated Board, and for the election of the members to constitute that Board.

It was decided that the Board should in the future consist of forty-five members of whom six should be from distant places. The method by which the membership should be increased was most carefully considered, and it was decided that there should be a ballot for nominations. The whole list of nominees was read and the thirteen who had received the largest number were declared the final ballot from which nine should be elected. This also was done by a written ballot.

I cannot tell you how sorry I am so say that your name was omitted from the list elected. The whole ballot, - I wish to re-emphasize, - was a secret one; but in the discussion great emphssis was placed upon regularity of attendance, as it was felt that if the Board was to be smaller, it must have as its members those who could be counted upon for regular and active service. I wish that I might assure you of my distress in thus writing you, although I am assured in my own mind that you will thoroughly understand that this has been a most impersonal matter, done by the Board only on the basis of the active attendance at Board meetings.

I trust that, as you are able, you will still be with us at the prayer meetings and on the third Tuesdays, and that we may count upon your co-operation in the furtherance of the work.

Please believe me that I am, with most sincere regret for the message that I am sending,

Very sincerely yours,

B/B

May 14, 1915.

Mrs. E. W. Work,
631 West End Avenue,
New York, N. Y.

My dear Mrs. Work:

A meeting of the incorporators of the newly organized Woman's Board of Home Missions has been held. It was voted that the Board should in the future consist of forty-five members of whom six should be from the territory of synodical societies other than New York and New Jersey. It was further decided that the nominations and elections should be by written ballot.

This was the method that obtained; and I cannot tell you how sorry I am to say that your name was not among those of the members to constitute the smaller Board. I wish I might convince you of my distress in thus writing you, although I am assured in my own mind that you will thoroughly understand that this has been a most impersonal matter and that the Board members have voted in accordance with their knowledge of the women who formerly constituted the Board.

I trust that we shall still have your very hearty co-operation in the service for Home Missions, and that, as you are able, you will be with us at the prayer meetings and on the third Tuesdays.

Please believe me that I am, with most sincere regret for the message that I am sending,

Faithfully yours,

B/B

My dear Mrs Bennett.

I must take just a moment of your valuable time to thank you for your most cordial note - also to tell you how much I shall miss the Board meetings particularly the 8pm. third

Tuesdays. They were always an inspiration - and to have to forego them is a trial. Thank you for your suggestions in your first note that I might go to them - Under the circumstances it is impossible - Thank you again for your very kind note and appreciations - Yours ever Frances M. Young.

Aurora N. Y.

My dear Mrs. Bennett.

Let me thank you for your cordial letter. I can not pretend that I have not suffered over this matter. for it seemed a thing impossible that after eighteen years of comradeship with the Board, I should be forgotten — not wanted.

Certainly my absence from the meeting was more my fault, but my misfortune, and up to ten years ago when I resigned from Presbyterial & Synodical work. I was often doing Home Mission work & missionary societies invited me to sing at the Board meetings.

However I do not blame, nor feel unkindly towards any of the Officers whom I shall always consider dear friends.

Cordially yours

Ida D. Allen

May 30th 1915

My dear Mrs Bennet,

Thank you very much for your unexpressing request that I was not elected to the new Board. I should think the members of the Committee would have been elected by common sense if not had been elected.

Mrs Baird, Miss Goldman and Mrs Tilney East have known that I did not intend to remain on the Board. Each of any kind has an interest in me at present. I am constantly in fear that I shall not be able to live in this East. I have been having very bad nights, and many days I have been quite prostrate.

I have lost thirty-six pounds up my bones show much frightfully, it seems very difficult for me to rise.

I am glad you are so well and I trust he has his organization may be all things but the old Bay was not. let pressure, have and others, if time you can trust make my close so short.

Cordially yours,

Frank L. Stearns

Ray Kinsman.

2066 Fifth-avenue

My dear Mrs. Bennett

I have received your very kind letter. Please do not think I shall be hurt- at being dropped from the roll of membership of the Nurses Board. I've see I have been feeling my conscience stricken for account- of my poor attendance during the past year. It has been necessary-

(or rather my pleasure to have spent considerable time in Washington & Atlantic City and other places which I really like & should resign and give my place to one who might have been a more useful member.

It has only been the press of circumstances since my return to the city this Spring which has prevented my writing an apology and a resignation to the Board.

I shall merely try to attend the public meetings when I can & have always enjoyed them when I could be there.

Yours very sincerely

hold you personaly responsible for any action of the Womans
Board - but at the same time
I am deeply sorry that such action was deemed necessary.
In reference to "irregular attendance" you must realize among the Committees- You had it placed ~~among~~ on the "Mountaineer" ... I tried to do my duty there and it was a pleasure to work with dear Mrs Peters. When it became necessary to have a new Chairman, the one who was appointed sent by mail to ask me for my list of Leaches with whom I had corresponded - I was not asked to continue on that Committee neither was I given any other - Naturally it hurt, and I felt that I was of no use in any way to the Board - Now my dear Mrs Bennett I am only telling you this in order to explain my apparent lack of interest. I should have been most happy to work, had I been given a chance.

Dear Mrs. Bennett:

Your letter in regard to the new organization of the Sound was received some time ago. I appreciate your promptness and interest in writing. Some of the letters, but I hope you will not count that against me, for I have really received my conscience gradually. I have felt for a year that I was going

I shall try to find some other path;-or, "those who stand and wait" seem to be more in my "class" at present.

Mrs. William C. Adams,
Hotel Gotham,
New York, N. Y.

My dear Mrs. Adams:

I should not have allowed your letter of May thirteenth to remain unanswered so long were it not that I left for Rochester immediately after its receipt. This is the first opportunity I have had to reply.

Frankly I am distressed beyond measure to learn that you have not attended meetings because you did not receive notices. This has been due to a misunderstanding, for notices of Board meetings are not sent to the members except in cases where, because of some important matters, a special attendance is desired or there is a change in the day or hour. No one has had any thought that your absence at any time has meant that you were waiting to be thus notified. It was agreed sometime ago that, as the dates were regular, members would be expected to attend without notification.

The committee matter has also been due to a misunderstanding which I have not yet been able to solve. I made an appointment but evidently in some way you were not notified thereof.

It has all been misunderstandings but, nevertheless, I do not feel in the least absolved and am very distressed. At the first meeting of the Board, I am going to explain, as I feel it is only justice to you that I should say that your lack of attendance was due to the fact that you had supposed notices were sent for meetings. That this should have happened to you in particular is a matter of deep distress to me.

Believe me that I am, with sincere regret for all of this past,

Very sincerely yours,

June 2, 1915.

Mrs. Harvey C. Olin,
63 Chestnut Street,
East Orange, N. J.

My dear Mrs. Olin:

I must take a few moments from a busy morning to tell you how grateful I am for your dear letter of May thirtieth. I think that I have suffered fully with you in this difficult situation. There are pleasures and joys in my service, but there are also the hard hours and the difficult duties. This has been one of them.

I think possibly, however, those of us who have been for a long time on the Board have not realized until just lately how very largely the complexion of that Board has changed within the last two years. A group of younger women have come to the front with great activity. They are fine, splendid people and are going to make us wonderful workers; but we have to recognize that the past means but little to them. I suppose at some time we also ruthlessly discarded some one else's past. It is that thought which sometimes helps me.

Again thanking you for writing me so sweetly, I am

Faithfully yours,

New York, N. Y.

My dear Miss Gillies:

Thank you very much for your nice letter of May thirteenth, which was a great help to me personally, for I can assure you that I had had some very unhappy hours in contemplating the action and the duty that devolved upon me of making the action known to those who were affected by it.

I have wanted and do want so much to see you. Perhaps some day you will feel like seeing a talkative person and will let me know.

I wish I could tell you in some measure how sorry I have been for all that you have had to endure this past year, but I do hope ~~with~~ your other many friends that this will soon be over and that you will be strong and well again. Then I shall hope to see something of you.

I missed you much on the day when finally I was able to have Miss Fellows and Mrs. Darlington and some of the other friends out for luncheon - the party that I had planned for so long. But you had not even returned to the city then.

Dear lady - every good wish goes with this letter, and I am, now and always,

Faithfully yours,

June 2, 1915.

Mrs. Edward B. Cooke,
115 West 129th Street,
New York, N. Y.

My dear Mrs. Cooke:

I do want to take just a moment of your time to thank you for your dear note and the lovely spirit in which you had taken the letter that had been very hard for me to write.

I trust that we shall see you from time to time at the third Tuesday meetings, and that you will, as you are able, come in at least to say "How do you do" to us.

Believe me that I am

Faithfully yours,

June 2, 1915.

My dear Mrs. Hasbrouck:

I do want to take just a moment of your time to thank you for your dear note and the lovely spirit in which you had taken the letter that had been very hard for me to write. I trust that we shall see you from time to time at the third Tuesday meetings, and that you will, as you are able, come in at least to say "How do you do" to us.

I hope that your health is going to improve and perhaps some day when we have a vacancy on the Board we may have the happiness of having you with us again.

Believe me that I am

Faithfully yours,

June 2, 1915.

Mrs. Alfred E. Marling,

My dear Mrs. Marling:

I do want to take just a moment of your time to thank you for your dear note of May twenty-second and the lovely spirit in which you had taken the letter that had been very hard for me to write.

I trust that we shall see you from time to time at the third Tuesday meetings, and that you will, as you are able, come in at least to say "How do you do" to us.

Believe me that I am

Faithfully yours,

June 2, 1915.

Mrs. G. J. Young,
40 West 127th Street,
New York, N. Y.

My dear Mrs. Young:

I must take a few moments this busy morning to thank you for your letter and to tell you how glad I am to have had from you personally this explanation. I find that the work is so big and the interests so varied that many things get by me and that I fail to appreciate situations as they arise.

I wish I could make you know how sorry I am that the situation has been such in relation to you as it has been, through an absolute oversight which, however, should never have occured. You are more than good to be so kindly in your expressions to me personally, and I did want you to know how very thoroughly I appreciated this.

I want you to know that I remain, now and always,

Most cordially yours,

June 2, 1915.

Mrs. G. S. Humphrey,
45 Broadway,
New York, N. Y.

My dear Mrs. Humphrey:

I cannot resist the temptation to write you just a little word to tell you how happy your dear note made me and how much I hope that you will, when you are in the city, come in as often as you can to share the third Tuesdays with us - and at other times when you are in the building to at least say "How do you do."

Believe me that I am,

Faithfully yours,
